

Audition Notice

Six Degrees of Separation

Play by John Guare
Revived on Broadway 2016
Director: Pam Duncan

Performances

March 8-24

Friday, Saturday – 8PM
Sunday – 2PM

Synopsis

Inspired by a true story, Six Degrees of Separation follows the trail of a young con man, Paul, who insinuates himself into the lives of a wealthy New York couple, Ouisa and Flan Kitteredge, claiming he knows their son at college. Paul tells them he is the son of actor Sidney Poitier, and that he has just been mugged and all his money is gone. Captivated by Paul's intelligence and his fascinating conversation, the Kitteredges invite him to stay overnight. After kicking him out, Ouisa and Flan discover that friends of theirs have had a similar run-in with the brash con artist. Intrigued, they turn detective and piece together the connections that gave Paul access to their lives. Meanwhile, Paul's cons unexpectedly lead him into darker territory and his lies begin to catch up with him. As the final events of the play unfold Ouisa suddenly finds herself caring for Paul, feeling that he gave them far more than he took and that her once idyllic life was not what it seemed to be.

Audition Dates & Location

Sunday, January 6th (2PM – 5PM)   Monday, January 7th (6PM – 9PM)   Thursday, January 10th (6PM)

180 Academy Street, Alpharetta, GA 30009

Rehearsals

Sundays 2PM-5PM   Tuesdays 7PM-9:30PM   Thursdays 7-9:30PM

Audition Sign Up

<https://www.signupgenius.com/go/20f0845a4a82fa4fe3-auditions>

Roles Available

(Nothing needed to be prepared. You do not have to know the script to audition. We encourage all ethnicities to come out!)

Louisa 'Ouisa' Kitteredge

Witty New Yorker; gracious hostess; a quick conversationalist and a dramatic storyteller; the bond she forms with Paul leads to an inner transformation that involves a new way of seeing the world around her and is profoundly changed by the things she learns about herself, her children, and her marriage.

Flanders 'Flan' Kitteredge

Sophisticated, successful art dealer who possesses a cutthroat zest for the high stakes of the art world; however, the passion he once felt for the art itself has been supplanted by his competitive interest in the wealth it can earn for him; Flan is drawn to Paul, but when he

Paul	realizes that he's been conned by him, all he can feel is anger and betrayal.
Geoffrey	He claims to be the son of Sidney Poitier as well as a Harvard classmate of the Kittredges' children, although we never really know for certain who he is or where he came from; he alters every life he touches
Rick	Elegant, liberal South African billionaire who is an acquaintance of the Kittredges' and is at their home when Paul first arrives.
Elizabeth	Idealistic and passionate young actor and singer who moves to New York from Utah with his girlfriend Elizabeth in pursuit of their art.
Talbot 'Tess' Kitteredge	Idealistic young actress who moves to New York from Utah with her boyfriend Rick in pursuit of their art. Louisa and Flan's daughter; articulate, self-involved, and privileged; can barely contain her contempt and judgment for her parents' every action and utterance.
Woodrow 'Woody' Kitteredge	Louisa and Flan's son; currently at Harvard; self-absorbed and intolerant; has lived a life of privilege and insularity.
Trent Conway	Attended the same high school as the Kittredge children; a genius of sorts, he never fit into the world in which he grew up.
Kitty	Married to Larkin; she and Larkin are friends of the Kittredges. Their children went to boarding school together and they move in similar NYC social circles.
Larkin	Married to Kitty; they too end up being taken in by Paul's charms; waspy, very concerned with his position in the world; during conflict or controversy, prefers to bury his head in the sand.
Ben	Kitty and Larkin's son; brimming with post-adolescent contempt toward his parents, who he thinks are utter fools.
Dr. Fine	Divorced; obstetrician at New York Hospital; his son Doug, with whom he has a strained relationship, went to boarding school with the Kittredges' children; prides himself on being a liberal and open-minded person, he's also gullible and susceptible to being conned by Paul.
Doug	Dr. Fine's son; went to boarding school with the Kittredges' children; currently attending Dartmouth; he is enraged and appalled when he discovers that his father, with whom he never had a good relationship, has been taken in by Paul.
Hustler	male hustler, shocks Ouisa.
Doorman (Eddie)	New York doorman of the Upper East Side apartment where Flan and Ouisa live; escorts the injured Paul in when he first shows up on the Kittredges' doorstep.
Policeman	NYPD cop who is called to Dr. Fine's home to arrest Paul after Dr. Fine discovers he's been duped (may double with Doorman).
Detective	NYPD detective who interviews all the victims who have been taken in by Paul.

Questions?

Please email Marshall, Artistic Director, at ACT1Artistic@gmail.com or Melody, Managing Director, at Melody.L.Cookson@gmail.com